

Parents & Families,

We had a wonderful week at PLES!

Monday is the Solar Eclipse. We wish all of our classes could go outside and experience this event. Unfortunately, once we received guidance from the State Department, we were unable to purchase glasses for the entire school. Some teachers purchased glasses early. These are the classes who sent waivers home to participate outside. All students who are present Monday during the eclipse will be able to participate by watching the Solar Eclipse live stream on the Smart Panel. That being said, we appreciate our Board of Education and Central Office leadership for providing excused absences or excused check-outs for families who choose to experience this rare scientific event at home together.

Monday, April 8

- Library/Media Appreciation Week
- Solar Eclipse - Parents you have the freedom to keep your children home or check them out to enjoy the solar eclipse as a family. These absences will be excused as a "school activity." There will be an assignment due. See your child's teacher's Parent Square for this assignment. Students at school will complete the same assignment.
