Academic and Athletic Awards

Students K-12 were awarded for their hard work in athletics and academics on the last day of school. We are proud of the efforts and strides these students made over the course of the year, and we look forward to what they will accomplish next year. Stacy Rusche was also able to attend, and she gave a short but powerful speech about the importance of being cautious and aware while driving and of always wearing a seatbelt in the car. We thank God she and her daughter are still with us, and we pray for a speedy and thorough recovery for both.

Teacher Appreciation Week

The teachers of Calhoun R-VIII felt the love during Teacher Appreciation Week. We were spoiled with snacks, meals, and goodies.

A big thank you goes out to the Calhoun PTO, Becca Crump, and

Heather Hollinger for making us feel so special that week; it was the perfect boost.

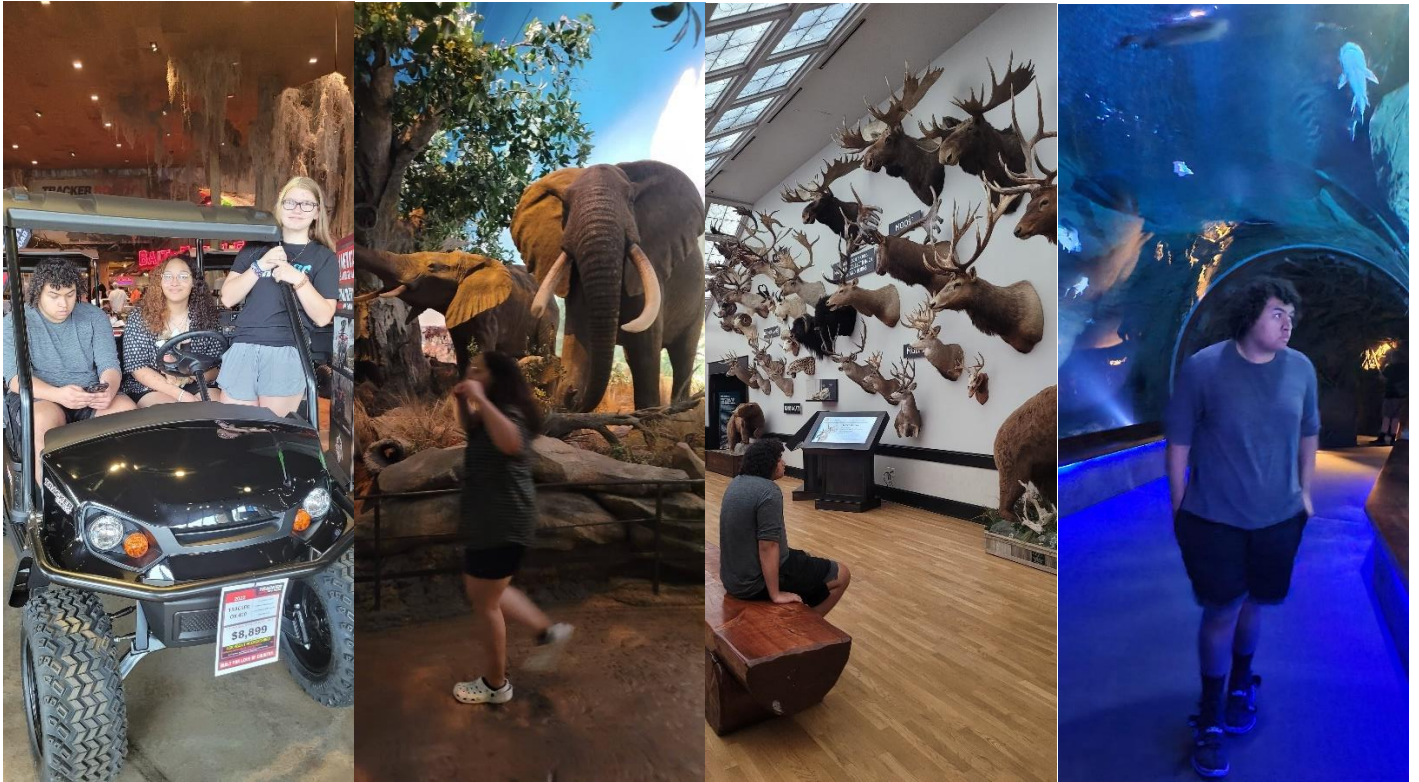

Baccalaureate

Baccalaureate was hosted again by the Ministerial Alliance of Calhoun. Each pastor lead a different part of the ceremony, and the Seniors were gifted a new Bible. Arionna Watson was in attendance and thanked them for the gift. She was excited to not only have a new Bible but one that comes with a companion app to help her in her studies.

Graduation

We said goodbye to our there Seniors: Arionna Watson, Isaiah Manis, and Autumn Rusche. We laughed and shed a few tears, and we hope that they embrace life and make the most of whatever the future may hold.
