

This summer FCCSC will host Scott Ervin, also known as the Kid Whisperer for the Behavioral Leadership Academy conference July 13-15 from 8-3 at Brookville Elementary.

Staff members from all levels, elementary, middle, and high school, will benefit from the training. Scott takes a very tangible and procedural approach to the manner in which you run your classroom and interact with students.

The best news is FCCSC employees may attend for free!

In addition, we would love for you to spread the word about the conference to your friends from other corporations. Feel free to copy the information below and send it to your contacts as you see fit. The cost for those outside of FCCSC is $300 per participant or $275 for individuals if the corporation registers five or more participants.
