Week of October 7, 2024

History Mr. Hummill mhummill@rappahannockschools.us We are finishing up our research projects about WWI and studying the Treaty of Versailles which ended the war. We will then transition into the Roaring '20s. Please reach out with any questions or concerns.	Language Arts  sclark@rappahannockschools.us This week in English class, we are wrapping up Unit 1 and starting Unit 2! We will be completing test corrections for the Unit 1 Test, so that students can improve their grade if needed. In Unit 2, we will be reading the novel Hatchet by Gary Paulsen. Students will be completing chapter summaries and comprehension checks in class. Lastly, students will be writing their own short story in Unit 2 as well. Please reach out if you ever have any questions or concerns!
Math Mrs. Phillips dphillips@rappahannockschools.us This week in math we will be finishing up multiplying and dividing integers using counters, number lines, and following integer operation rules. I am planning for a test specifically on multiplying and dividing integers early next week. Students will be able to use their notes to refer to the rules during the test. Please consider donating glue sticks and pencils. We would appreciate any donations!	Reminders Be on the lookout for parent-teacher conference forms. Parent-teacher conferences are on October 15th. There is no school on October 14th and 15th. October 11th is the end of the first 9 weeks!
