$3300 Scholarships

For Incoming Freshmen Men to attend NDSU

Application deadline: March 1: 2026

FarmHouse Fraternity alumni have established an endowment that provides numerous $3300 scholarships for any incoming male freshmen students to attend North Dakota State University for the 2026-2027 academic year. The scholarships will not be based primarily on grade point average, but rather a demonstration of FarmHouse Fraternity values, i.e., intellectual, spiritual, social, and moral development. The goal is to identify and encourage men who likely will be life-long leaders.

Applicants can major in any field of study, and there is no requirement to join FarmHouse Fraternity. Scholarship applications are available at www.ndsufarmhouse.org and are due by March 1, 2026.

Preference will be given to applicants who demonstrate the characteristics of “grit” – resilience, a strong work ethic, direction, desire to succeed, and perseverance. A qualified recipient must demonstrate that his circumstances and accomplishments, when combined with financial aid and determination, will result in a high likelihood of graduation from NDSU in a timely manner.
