

WCSD Featured Story

News Stories from Across Williamsburg County School District

Provided by the Office of Public Relations of Williamsburg County School District

INTERVIEW OF CHAKARIS THOMAS HEAD COACH OF THE HEMINGWAY TIGERS GIRLS BASKETBALL TEAM

Q: Who do you think your team will be most excited about playing?

A: Carver's Bay and Kingstree are always good rivals, but I think they will be most excited about the Johnsonville games because we haven't played them in years.

Q: Will you be playing in any tournaments this season?

A: We are playing in two preseason jamborees, Carver's Bay and Wilson.

Q: What do you usually do after losing a game?

A: After losing a game, I tend to replay our weaknesses and mistakes over and over in my head. Then I am immediately thinking about how to fix the problem. It's back to the drawing for the next practice.

Q: What can fans expect to see from your team this season?

A: Fans can expect to see a more confident and competitive team.

Q: At the end of the season, do you think you will be playing for a region or state title?

A: Hey, you always PREPARE for a state title, but we will be vying for a region title in February, and then we will take one game at a time.

Q: Who are your key returning players?

A: Caitlyn Nesmith, Genesis McCullough, Teonna Draughn, and Elisha Singletary

Q: How many years have you been coaching?

A: 26 years

Q: What do you think will be your team's strengths?

A: Team strength will be defense and the fact that they know each other's strengths and weaknesses.

