Dear Power 88 supporter,

I recently read a story about a man with 4 terriers, who would take them out and let them run in an open field. One of them would always stay near and run tight circles around his owner.

A man, who observed this odd behavior asked why. The owner explained that the dog near him was a rescue and spent most of his life in a cage; and even though the dog was in an open field, he continued to act as though he was in a confined space.

“Jesus”, scripture says, “came to set the captives free.” What bad habits or behaviors (cages) have you confined? Even though you’ve been set free by Jesus Christ, how are you living as though you’re still trapped in a cage?

Something was recently brought to my attention that I was completely unaware of that was confining me. We all have blind spots that keep us from experiencing freedom in Christ. God’s word, community, Christian music and programming all help us to become aware and walk through doors Jesus has opened for us.

Thank you for enabling us to do our part in ministering. It is your commitment to prayer and financial support for this ministry that make it possible. God bless you.

Each day is different! No one ever knows what is or going to happen.

Because of Stress that is part of life, we have to be prepared.

I think we are reminded of things and situations all day long of what are different confinement's. These are all thoughts of being prepared of going home to a place of love and just being taken care of.

I appreciate the sound of the music that fills my office right now as I am reading your text. I go down stairs or outside and the power 88 is on.

My grandmother said to keep my CUP FULL. You know I hear several times a year how my grandmother made a difference in either someone's life or I have heard from them personally.

My children and grandchildren let the music play. It's not turned off. Our Father is Present!!!

I pray for someone to hear His word somewhere, some how and Radio is the one thing I see making a change and people are not even aware the change happening!!! It's beautiful!!!

Thank you for being there for me. We are being prepared by preparing others... as we were told to do!!

All of you are truly Loved and Appreciated.
