

Branning's Buzz

Week of: January 18, 2022

What's Happening This Week

- When your child is absent, please return a written excuse within three days.
- Snack money should always be sent in a labeled envelope.
- Don't forget that your child can complete Lexia & Reflex at home to improve their reading and math skills. Please also practice the sight word list in your child's binder and sign when your child has mastered the list.
- Jan. 21: Special Snack: Free Choice $1.00
- Jan. 21 100th Day of School (A letter was sent home in the Tuesday Folders. Only a few students need to bring items. If you were asked to send something and will be unable to, please let me know).
- Please note that the skills this week are continued from last week, because of our Virtual Learning Days.

Upcoming Events

- Jan. 17: Martin Luther King Holiday
- Jan. 21: 100th Day of School
- Jan. 26: First Grade Parent Workshops at 8:30, 12:00 or 5:30 & Handprint tile painting
- Jan. 28: PPS Spirit Day: Wear camo
- If you have questions or concerns, you may email me at Wendy.branning@acboe.net or message through SeeSaw.

A Peek At What We Are Learning

Reading

Phonics Skill: Ending -es: Plural -es and r-Controlled Vowels: or, ore
Comprehension: Fact & Opinion
1/20 Phonics/High Frequency Word Assessment 1/21 Weekly Test & Read the Sentences Individual Assessment

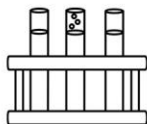

Writing/
Grammar

Grammar: Verbs that Do Not Add 's, Spelling: Words with -es
1/20 Grammar Test on Verbs that do not add 's, 1/21 Spelling Test on words with -es

Math

Continue Topic 7 Extend the Counting Sequence
1/21 Reteaching pages sent home for review (Last week I also sent additional practice pages for you to practice. They do not have to be returned).
1/24 Topic 7 Extend the Counting Sequence Test

Science

N/A We rotate Science and SS each week.

Social Studies

Martin Luther King, Jr. Unit

Spelling Words

fix fixes class classes wish wishes kiss kisses bus buses friends very

