2. DATA COLLECTION ANALYSIS

2.6 Data Analysis Questions

Analyze the LEA's data and answer the guiding questions to determine existing trends and patterns that support the identification of demographic and financial needs. Student subgroups with a count of less than 15 are denoted by "TFS" (too few students).

What perception data did you use? [examples: student perceptions about school climate issues (health survey, violence, prejudice, bullying, etc.); student/parent perceptions about the effectiveness of programs or interventions; student understanding of relationship of school to career or has an academic plan]	• Parent Perception Survey • School Personnel Survey • School Climate Star Ratings • Professional Learning Needs Assessment

What does the perception data tell you? (perception data can describe people's knowledge, attitudes, beliefs, perceptions, competencies; perception data can also answer the question "What do people think they know, believe, or can do?")	In the learning realm, we noticed the need to engage our teachers more in data analysis activities which would lead to higher student engagement. Through this data analysis, it would also help us to identify students who are struggling and need more non-traditional assistance. Within the resource realm, we found the need to implement more effective PLCs, to attract and employ quality, diverse personnel, and to use technology and digital resources to reach instructional learning targets. In the Staff and Parent surveys, teachers feel Ambrose promotes academic success for all. Teachers feel that students of all races, ethnicities and cultures are treated fairly. Teachers feel safe at school and are not concerned for their physical safety while at school. Parents feel Ambrose is well maintained and safe for their students. Parents attend parent/teacher conferences. Parents feel Ambrose sets clear rules for behavior.

What process data did you use? (examples: student participation in school activities, sports, clubs, arts; student participation in special programs such as peer mediation, counseling, skills conferences; parent/student participation in events such as college information meetings and parent workshops)	• PBIS Meeting Minutes • Collaborative Meetings • Parent Teacher Conferences Results • Daily Schedules

What does the process data tell you? (process data describes the way programs are conducted; provides evidence of participant involvement in programs; answers the question "What did you do for whom?")	In reviewing the process data sources, we found the need to examine all of our processes, initiatives, programs, and assessments to ensure that they are providing the systematic and sustainable improvements we need. Walkthroughs and Coaching sessions are ensuring highly effective research-based instruction is occurring. We are continuing to improve and expand our intervention resources.

What achievement data did you use?	• Georgia Milestones • ACCESS • GKIDS • Reading Inventory/Lexile

What does your achievement data tell you?	The achievement data allows us to understand the gaps and deficiencies we have in grade levels, classrooms, and student demographic groups. The Leadership Team uses the data from statewide assessments and benchmarks to get a clearer picture on what areas we need to target with additional support and funds to bolster more achievement in those specific need areas. During Leadership Team focus groups, we have determined we still fall below in several domain areas in ELA and Math. We still have a need to close the gap on achievement for our Students with Disabilities and Hispanic students in both areas. We have established several programs and resources that will help identify students earlier based on benchmarking data to close the gap prior to standardized testing. We have two afterschool programs that focus on closing the gap for these student groups, as well as identifying students that may need more intensive interventions. These students would be pulled and tiered based on a Multi-Tiered Support System to receive SAIL services during Flex Group scheduling. The data drives the finances and where money is spent to get the most out of every dollar. Programs, resources, and staff are acquired to target these areas of support, and help to curb the data in a positive trend. Having the financial resources is a huge asset to push our students toward success!

What demographic data did you use?	• I -Campus DATA

What does the demographic data tell you?	There hasn't been any significant change in enrollment most of the ethnic subgroups or the federal reporting subgroups. We continue to have approximately 30% Hispanic, 12% African American, 57% White students, and 2% other. We continue to monitor the achievement of various demographic subgroups to ensure that they are meeting the academic expectations and the learning targets established.

3. NEEDS IDENTIFICATION AND ROOT CAUSE ANALYSIS

3.1 Strengths and Challenges Based on Trends and Patterns

Read the trends and patterns summaries from each section of the data analysis process. Use the information in these summaries to complete 3.2 and 3.3. Using the summaries in 3.1 and other local data, describe the strengths and challenges or answer the guiding questions for each program. Include strengths and challenges related to: a) general program implementation, and b) students and adults involved in or affected by the program. Focus on strengths and challenges that will assist in the identification of needs during 3.2. Watch the Identifying Need webinar for additional information and guidance.

Strengths and Challenges Based on Trends and Patterns

Coherent Instructional: Summarize the coherent instructional system trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	• Review and revision of relevance and rigor of all the practices such as curriculum, pacing, and assessment. • Utilize research based progress monitors in order to provide effective interventions for all students. • Observations of classrooms by academic coaches, administrators, and other district personnel. • Provide professional learning in collaborative common assessments, grading, and effective tier 1 instruction. • Provide professional learning for digital learning technology integration and virtual platforms for instruction to teachers and staff.

Effective Leadership: Summarize the effective leadership trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	• Clear goals with strategies aligned have been developed at District level. This is supported and implemented at the school level. • The leadership team participates in various groups to share input to the school improvement plan. • Administrators are provided professional learning based on their learning goals and district initiatives. • We will continue the student learning support systems to provide leadership opportunities to aspiring leaders.

Professional Capacity: Summarize the professional capacity trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	• Collaborative planning time is provided to ensure we utilize the strengths of all teachers and help develop teacher leaders. • Professional learning opportunities are available through our district online platform. • There is a need for follow up training of professional learning that is supportive for the teachers where needed. • Teachers are given opportunities to redeliver professional learning to other staff and serve as teacher leaders. • There is a need for vertical planning times with school staff and district level teachers.

Strengths and Challenges Based on Trends and Patterns

Family and Community Engagement: Summarize the family and community engagement trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	● Our Parent and family engagement coordinator provides a monthly newsletter, offers parent workshops, and is available for resources. ● We have an active PTO which provides funds for our school to purchase needed equipment or supplies. ● Parent nights provide extra support and information for students and families. These were provided virtual this year due to the COVID19 Pandemic. The topics are requested through a parent survey. ● School Governing Council meetings are held once a month and include family and community stakeholders, ● Parents were limited to in person engagements due to the COVID 19 pandemic. Visitors were not allowed in the buildings.

Supportive Learning Environment: Summarize the supportive learning environment trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	● Consistent procedures in place to identify and provide services for students in special education, MTSS, ESOL, and 504. ● School counselor is available for individual sessions, classroom lessons, and support for students. The pandemic created many additional social and emotional cases during FY21. ● STEAM lab provides students opportunities to engage in hands on learning. ● Cultivations stations: Farm to table initiative provides students with academic skills, experiences, and knowledge that will benefit them the rest of their lives.

Demographic and Financial: Summarize the demographic and financial trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	● Continual growth in percentage of students who live in poverty. ● Continual growth in our ESOL population ● Funds to be used to supplement instructional needs: Title l, Title ll, Title lll,

Student Achievement: Summarize the student achievement trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	● ELL students will receive additional support from ESOL -New Comers Class ● SPED subgroup performed lowest in subgroups on GMAS ELA and Math ● ESOL subgroup performed lowest in ethnicity groups on GMAS ELA ● Black subgroup performed lowest in ethnicity groups on GMAS Math Some very important factors relating to these trends due to the COVID 19 pandemic are: 1. Staff and student attendance due to illness or quarantine 2. Loss of face to face instruction in 2020 school year 3. No flexible reading /Math grouping 4. No circulation/checkout of books from the library

IDEA – Special Education, Economically Disadvantaged Children, and English Learners.

> Using the summaries in 3.1 and other local data, describe the strengths and challenges or answer the guiding questions for each program. Include strengths and challenges related to: a) general program implementation, and b) students and adults involved in or affected by the program. Focus on strengths and challenges that will assist in the identification of needs during 3.3. Watch the Identifying Need webinar for additional information and guidance.

Strengths	● Continue to ensure proper placement among Tiers thus resulting in appropriate referrals for SPED. ● Scheduling 100% inclusion with SPED students ● 4-5th grade ESOL students are receiving maximum inclusion segments with ESOL teachers

Challenges	● ESOL families lack confidence in the ability to help their students at home. They often only speak home language preventing a huge barrier in assisting their children with homework. ● SPED and ESOL lack vocabulary development.

3. REQUIRED QUESTIONS

3.1 Stakeholders, Coordination of Activities, Serving Children, and PQ

Required Questions

1. In developing this plan, briefly describe how the school sought advice from individuals (teachers, staff, other school leaders, paraprofessionals, specialized instructional support personnel, parents, community partners, and other stakeholders).	Developing this plan utilized a variety of different data and team members to dig into the needs of our school. We broke down standardize test scores with our Leadership Team to determine where students fell short, and what gaps need to be met across the school to better allow students a chance to excel. The Leadership Team also gathered feedback directly from stakeholders on a variety of different surveys. The stakeholders included teachers, parents, and community members.

2. Describe how the school will ensure that low-income and minority children enrolled in the Title I school are not served at disproportionate rates by ineffective, out-of-field, or inexperienced teachers.	We are fortunate at our school to have 100% in field, highly effective, and experience teachers and paraprofessionals at Ambrose Elementary School. AES balances the experience levels within grades, teams, and content areas so that no one area is predominantly inexperienced. New teachers are assigned a trained mentor, who works with them throughout the school year. A mentor can be used for additional reasons such as low performance, or help with specific areas within content areas. AES also employs an academic coach to guide new and seasoned teachers in the incorporation of best practices. This academic coach is paid with Title I funds.

Our current staff retention plan includes incentives for employees to continue their employment at AES. The plan includes maintaining trust and line of communication between staff and administration; providing interventions and supports specific needs of the staff through professional learning; providing a "Brag" board for teachers to post brag comments about fellow staff; and staff luncheons during the year to encourage team building.

We will ensure continuous professional learning and growth to support high students achievement and build an organizational culture through AES's professional learning plan. |

3. Provide a general description of the Title I instructional program being implemented at this Title I school. Specifically define the subject areas to be addressed and the instructional strategies/methodologies to be employed to address the identified needs of the most academically at-risk students in the school. Please include services to be provided for students living in local institutions for neglected or delinquent children (if applicable).	Teachers will utilize flexible grouping and small group instruction to accommodate student readiness, learning bookstyles, and identified weaknesses. Teachers will provide intervention instruction to students who did not meet standards in Math or ELA on the Georgia Milestones Assessment System. Teachers incorporate student efficacy strategies into their instruction to increase student motivation.

In ELA, the Star Assessment and other benchmarks will be administered 3 times throughout the year. The 3rd-4th grade students scoring well below grade level could be placed in Scholastic System 44 program during SAIL or flex time. During this 45 minute program, students will be led through work stations which include individualized ELA skills on the computer such as | Essential Reading, Study Island, etc.. The 4th-5th grade students who score below grade level will be provided interventions on the computer such as Study Island, IXL, etc.

In Math, the 3rd-5th students who perform below grade level on the benchmarks will be provided intervention in teacher small groups and computer programs (ie: Math Seeds, IXL, Study Island, and Reflex Math). Computers and class sets of iPads are used for practice on state assessments, to complete research projects, or to improve specific skills. Computer programs (ie. Read 180, System 44, Flocabulary, Reflex Math, Reading Eggs, IXL, Study Island, Math Seeds and keyboarding for grades k-5) are available for identified student populations in the needs area academically. These technological resources are a large driving force for school wide improvements on student achievement and professional learning plans.

Title 1 funds provide salaries for a regular education teacher, an Academic Coach, parent resource coordinator, and intervention specialist. Regular education teachers helps lower class size ratio for the grade level with the most academically at-risk students. The academic coach provides professional learning and instructional support for teachers and parents. Intervention specialist, and S.A.I.L (Students Accelerated in Learning). Special Education teachers provide additional ELA strategies using the Wilson Reading program.

Title 1 funds are used to provide professional learning opportunities through substitutes for teachers release time to desegregate data and collaborate to identify student needs. These funds also provide funding for a two day leadership team retreat to collaborate on improvement of instruction.

4. If applicable, provide a description of how teachers, in consultation with parents, administrators, and pupil services personnel, will identify eligible children most in need of services in Title I targeted assistance schools/programs. Please include a description of how the school will develop and implement multiple (a minimum of 2) objective, academic-based performance criteria to rank students for service. Also include a description of the measurable scale (point system) that uses the objective criteria to rank all students.	Our school is a school-wide Title 1 school and all students receive help, support, and access to resources to help them master grade level content and experience success in the classroom.

3. REQUIRED QUESTIONS

3.2 PQ, Federally Identified Schools, CTAE, Discipline

Required Questions

5. If applicable, describe how the school will support, coordinate, and integrate services with early childhood programs at the school level, including strategies for assisting preschool children in the transition from early childhood education programs to local elementary school programs.	We hold a Pre-Kindergarten Open House on the day of the K-5th Open House where we provide guidance on how to help students adjust to the new school day schedule. We also provide tours for the students and families of the rooms and common areas at school. On Kindergarten registration day, kindergarten teachers administer a Kindergarten readiness assessment to the upcoming kindergarten students. Results of these assessments are shared with parents. Meetings are also held between Pre-k and kindergarten teachers to discuss transition activities. Pre-kindergarten is housed on our campus. Throughout the year the students have the opportunity to visit the kindergarten classes to reduce anxiety of entering kindergarten.

6. If applicable, describe how the school will implement strategies to facilitate effective transitions for students from middle grades to high school and from high school to postsecondary education including:Coordination with institutions of higher education, employers, and local partners; andIncreased student access to early college, high school, or dual or concurrent enrollment opportunities or career counseling to identify student interest and skills.	Not Applicable

7. Describe how the school will support efforts to reduce the overuse of discipline practices that remove students from the classroom, specifically addressing the effects on all subgroups of students.	We fully implemented a support system calledPBIS.Positive, Behavior, Intervention and Support allows us to address positive behaviors among students and acknowledge their good behavior with positive reinforcement. This support system provides methods and interventions that limit the removal from the class setting with alternatives and acknowledge systems that help keep students on track and in class. This year we will begin training onCatching Kids Heartsto create a sense of community, build healthy relationships, and develop conflict resolution skills, and a sense of belonging.
