Samaritan's Purse Dodges Trump's Foreign Aid Freeze

As Christian ministries scramble to discern and communicate the impact of President Trump's 90-day pause on foreign aid, Samaritan's Purse wants to assure donors its global poverty-relief and disaster response efforts are secure. "The recent stop order on foreign aid does not affect Samaritan's Purse because the State Department has issued a waiver for life-saving essential aid such as food and medicine," said Samaritan's Purse President Franklin Graham in a statement released to MinistryWatch.

Virginia Teacher Reinstated After Firing Over Christian Gender Views

A Virginia school district has reinstated a substitute teacher initially removed due to her Christian views on gender ideology. Lindsay Rich, a Christian mother of five and a former candidate for the Montgomery County School Board in Virginia District E, has returned to her position as a teacher this week.

Trump tells prayer breakfast he wants to root out 'anti-Christian bias' and urges 'bring God back'

President Donald Trump said Thursday that he wants to root out “anti-Christian bias” in the U.S., announcing that he was forming a task force led by Attorney General Pam Bondi to investigate the “targeting” of Christians.

The governor of Virginia will defend homeschooling

Glenn Youngkin says he will veto a Democratic bill that would remove the state’s religious exemption in education.

That law allows a parent to keep their child out of the public schools strictly for religious reasons and does NOT require such parents to submit a homeschool lesson plan to the state.

Another pro-life action by the Trump administration Defense

Secretary Pete Hegseth has gotten the military out of the abortion business. He has overturned the Biden era policy that funded travel for female service members to leave pro-life states and head to states where abortions are legal for the purpose of getting one.

Supreme Court to decide if families can opt out of reading LGBTQ books in the classroom

The Supreme Court will decide if Maryland parents, who object to LGBTQ books in the classroom, have a constitutional right to opt their children out of classes that conflict with their family’s faith.

Start Your Day with Kevin & Amy

5:30-10:00 am

We can't thank you enough for spending a bit of your time and day with us - What a gift. Even now, you could be doing anything else and here you are — Thank you! Our heart's desire is that you come away with a smile on your face, knowing you have a couple of friends you can call on and knowing God loves you fully and unconditionally.

Highlights from Letters to Power 88

5 years ago I found the Lord while listening to "This is the day" by Phil Wickham (Power 88). I was going through a rough time in my life and that song came on and I could feel the Holy Spirit wash over me. If it wasn't for your station being on the air that might not have happened so it is I that owes you a debt of gratitude. Thank you very much for being here.
