

West Bolivar High School FBLA-ML Students Shine at Central State Leadership Conference

On Friday, February 28, 2025, students from West Bolivar High School, who are members of Future Business Leaders of America Middle Level (FBLA-ML), showcased their skills at the FBLA Central State Leadership Conference held at Meridian Community College in Meridian, MS. These students, enrolled in the Cyber Foundations I/II programs taught by Mrs. Chandra Miller-Faust, competed in various business and leadership events against FBLA members from across Mississippi. Pictures above from left to right are Ayden Manning-Mitchell, Nyjah Taylor, Colton Ellis, Kaden Lewis, Journee Mosley, Payton Walker, Jewel Mosley, and Annasten Johnson.

West Bolivar students delivered an outstanding performance, with two students earning 1st place in their respective events and advancing to the FBLA-ML National Leadership Conference in Anaheim, California, this June:

- Nyjah Taylor, a seventh-grader, ranked 1st place in the state of Mississippi for Exploring Parliamentary Procedure.
- Annasten Johnson, an eighth-grader, ranked 1st place in the state of Mississippi for FBLA Concepts.

Their remarkable achievements highlight their hard work, dedication, and leadership skills. Mrs. Miller-Faust expressed her pride in all participants, stating, “Their hard work, dedication, and commitment to excellence truly paid off. Competing at this level is a remarkable achievement, and I am excited to see them continue their journey at the national level.”

Congratulations to Nyjah Taylor, Annasten Johnson, and all West Bolivar High School FBLA-ML members for their hard work and success! We look forward to seeing them represent our school on the national stage this summer.
