Region and state competition will be coming up very soon.

STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT

Third, fourth, fifth, and sixth grade students are testing (Mastery Connect/ Benchmark) this week. The reading portion has already been completed and the math portion starts Wednesday. This test has shown to be very rigorous. Students are testing arena style in the cafeteria and gym.

PLANNING

Mrs. Owen has gone over our staffing allocation with central office staff for next year. The following changes have already been made for next year.

Tara Pryor, first grade teacher, resigning
Jessica Dalziel, fourth grade teacher, resigning
Nancy O’Neal, Special Ed teacher, retiring
Angela Thomas, FRC Coordinator, retiring

VLA is downsizing and their staff will be cut in half.

POLICY REVIEW

Mrs. Owen went over the changes that were made at the last meeting on the Planning and Resolution of Issues Regarding Instruction Practices Policy with the council. A motion was made and passed by consensus to accept these changes. This is the second reading.

Mrs. Owen went over the changes that were made at the last meeting on the Wellness Policy. A motion was made and passed by consensus to accept these changes. This is the second reading.

TITLE I

Millbrooke school hosted a Preschool Snack and Learn for incoming kindergarten students that will attend Millbrooke Elementary next year. They went over areas such as Camp Kinder, Enrollment documentation, and the Remind app just to name a few.

In April, Headstart students will visit our school.

Last month Millbrooke Elementary hosted a Wellness Night. The book fair was also here so the turnout was great!

FINANCIAL

DAF - $32,367.95

SAF - $20,442.04
