Parade

The videos have gone viral as Americans have been raising concerns about a massive Muslim parade that took place in Dearborn, Michigan. While some are sounding the alarm about the ongoing Islamization of the United States, one ex-Muslim is trying a more direct tactic – sharing the gospel directly with the Muslims in Dearborn.

Belgian Member of Parliament Darya Safai is just one of many who posted about the Islamic event in Dearborn, saying it reminds her of the life she escaped after suffering imprisonment under the ayatollahs in Iran.

Birmingham area church closes as membership drops, campus put up for sale

A west Jefferson County church has stopped meeting at its Concord campus, which has been put up for sale as the congregation that once had more than 125 members dwindled to less than a dozen.

We are debtors, to proclaim the Gospel by the electronic media, as trustees of our stations. God has given us influence beyond anything our natural abilities or personal goals would suggest.

Highlights from Letters to Power 88

Recently I had to have an MRI, and being claustrophobic, it is not a good experience for me to have to go through. I asked the technician to please give me the headphones and put the music on your Christian station. This was very calming to my spirit. When the machine was too loud to hear the music clearly, I was praying, saying the Lord's Prayer, the 23rd Psalm, and other scripture and comforting words memorized over my life. The music you were playing was exactly what I needed to hear in those moments. I am thankful you were used of God to help me through something that would have caused me a lot of anxiety. I have been a listener for 15 years since coming as a missionary kid from Pakistan and have been really impacted by Christian music in all aspects of my life and am really thankful for your station in the Gulf Coast area.
