African Pastor Asks for Prayer as Ebola Outbreak Intensifies

The Ebola outbreak continues to spread in the Democratic Republic of Congo despite efforts to contain it. Reverend Bisoke Balikenga spoke to CBN News about the desperation people in his city of Bunia are experiencing. Bunia is one of the hardest hit areas in Eastern Africa.

New laws aimed at protecting places of worship across the country

At least four states have passed legislation this year making it a crime to disrupt religious services, following a high-profile protest inside a Minnesota church. Supporters, largely Republican lawmakers, say the measures go beyond existing trespassing laws to ensure people can worship in peace and help prevent clashes, especially amid concerns over violence targeting faith communities.

Hundreds Born Again and Baptized in City After City, Jesus Tent Revival Sweeps the Nation

A modern-day tent revival, nine years in the making, is on the move across the nation, complete with reports of record salvations and baptisms. Organizers of the Jesus Tent Revival movement say it's shifting the nation's spiritual landscape. It started back in 2019, during a powerful event in Kokomo, IN. "People come in underneath that tent that walked in as atheists, walked in as Buddhists, walked in as Muslim," Dr. Braden Andersen, founder of Jesus Tent Revival, told CBN News.

Christians around the world are learning that worship comes with danger

Advocacy groups warn millions can't worship freely due to persecution. Violence continues in places like the Democratic Republic of the Congo (DRC), where militant attacks have killed dozens this month.

Meanwhile, authorities in China have arrested church leaders in a widening crackdown.

Advocates urge prayers and awareness for persecuted believers worldwide.

Over 388 million Christians worldwide experience high levels of persecution and discrimination due to their faith.

We are debtors, to proclaim the Gospel by the electronic media, as trustees of our stations. God has given us influence beyond anything our natural abilities or personal goals would suggest.
