- District 200U is not liable for any loss, damage (including accidental, consequential or punitive damages) or expense caused directly or indirectly by the equipment.

Beecher School District 200U Chromebook/iPad Insurance Terms and Conditions

In these Terms and Conditions, “we,” “us” and “our” means Beecher School District 200U. “You” and “your” means the parent/guardian and the student enrolled in District 200U. The “property” is the Chromebook/iPad owned by District 200U.

Terms: You will comply at all times with the District 200U Chromebook/iPad Policy and the District 200U Acceptable Use of the Internet Policy.

Title: Legal title to the property is held by District 200U at all times. Your right of possession and use is limited to and conditioned upon your full and complete compliance with these terms.

Loss/Damage: If you do not accept insurance and the property is damaged, lost or stolen, you are responsible for the reasonable cost of repair or the replacement value on the date of loss as defined under the technology agreement. Loss or theft of the property must be reported to school administration by the next school day following the occurrence. District 200U is not responsible for assisting with the recovery of any lost or stolen devices.

Appropriation: Your failure to return the property in a timely manner and the continued use of it for non-school purposes without the consent of District 200U may be considered unlawful appropriation of the school's property and could incur fines and/or loss of device privileges.

Indemnification: The student and parent/guardian release, hold harmless, defend and indemnify District 200U from any claims, liability or money damages (including attorney fees) brought by a third person, the student or the parents/guardians against District 200U and related to the student's use of the device or the student's or parents'/guardians' breach of these terms.

If a student is unenrolled from District 200U for any reason, the protection plan becomes null and void on that date. There are no refunds once this document becomes active on the first day of school or on the subsequent date when the Chromebook/iPad is issued.
