

CES Primary Student Spotlight
November, 2024

Riley Robbins

Riley is a very responsible 2nd grader. She consistently remembers her red folder, follows our routines, and often offers help to others in the class that need it. She gets all of her school work done and asks questions when she needs help. Riley has been a leader in our class for responsibility.