Library Code of Conduct

- Library Books require care. You are responsible for the items you check out. Please return them on time.
- Everyone deserves your respect.
- The library is a learning environment.
- No loud talking, playing, rocking back in chairs, gum, or food in the library!
- It is a privilege to check out books NOT a requirement. In other words, if you can't behave while visiting the library, then you will be sent back to class without a book and your teacher will be notified of the reason

Library Procedures:

- Enter the Library Quietly
- Sign the Library Log at the Circulation Desk if you are checking out a book
- Hand all books for check in to the library aide at the circulation desk when you enter the library.
- If you are renewing, see a library aide or myself to renew your book.
- If you are checking a book out, get a shelf marker and then quietly search for a book and when you are done, bring it to a library aide or myself to check the book out for you.
- If you pick up a book and change your mind, bring it to the circulation desk for us to put up.
- Don't forget to sign out before leaving the library!
