Special Reports: None

School Administrator’s Report – Jennifer Mathieu

1. Staff and students are thriving well with in-person instruction.
2. We have not had any positive COVID cases, which I feel has a great deal to do with the extensive cleaning by Mr. Rainville & Mr. Towle, as well as everyone following the expected guidelines. We have had two teachers out due to possible exposure.
3. I surprised students with SCS t-shirts recently in hopes of boosting their spirits.
4. Kim Wheelock, Principal at CAES called to share that Colebrook would be able to share their PE teacher, Katie Parker, with SCS next year for a full day every week.
5. Front doors have been decorated with paper hearts for Valentine’s Day and the 100th day of school.

Superintendent’s Report – Dr. Debra Taylor:

1. Dr. Taylor included a written report in the packet.
2. The COVID vaccinations have been moved up. Staff can go on Friday after school.
3. We have not received any ESSER II funds yet.
4. March 18 (pm) and March 19 (all day) are professional development days.
5. Dr. Taylor discussed a proposed COVID leave policy. We could use ESSER II funds.
6. John Shatney has been working with Justin Falconer.

Business Administrator’s Report – Cheryl Covill:

1. Audit Report is complete

2. Two more audits will be done this year: A food service on in March and Federal Programs audit in May.
3. Cheryl reported on Legislative updates.
4. The Dennis Joos plaque will be shown to the public at the District meeting.
5. The Board discussed a date for the dedication of the Emily Haynes room. It was decided to do it on April 5th at 6:00 pm after the board meeting.

Unfinished Business:

New Business:

1. Support staff retirement policy.
