OVERVIEW OF HOMEBOUND INSTRUCTION

The purpose of homebound instruction is to assist the student to keep up with his/her peers while the student is unable to attend school due to his/her condition as verified by a licensed physician. Homebound instruction is not designed for students who are experiencing chronic attendance problems.

Homebound instruction is a special service which is only available to approved students who anticipate being absent from regular school for at least ten(10) days due to his/her condition as verified by a licensed physicians. A physician must recommend that a student receive homebound instruction. Franklin County Schools reserves the right to request a second (2) opinion of a properly licensed medical doctor selected by the school system; the associated cost shall be paid by Franklin County Schools. The physician must complete Section II of the enclosed application; however, the final approval or denial decision rests with the school system.

When a student is approved for homebound instruction, a teacher (selected by the school system and approved by the Director of Schools) will be assigned to work with the student for three (3) hours a week for the approved length of time. The homebound teacher works with the student's regular teacher(s) to be sure that the student does the work required in the regular classroom. The purpose of homebound is to keep the student up with his/her peers while unable to attend school. The grades that a student receives while on homebound is determined by the homebound teacher with input from the regular teacher(s). The length of time that a student is approved for homebound is determined by the school system. Every effort is made to return the student to regular school as quickly as possible.

Procedures for applying for Homebound Instruction:

- I. The parent/guardian(s) gets the application from Board of Education as soon as service is anticipated;
- II. The parent/guardian completes Section I and sign the release for additional information;
- III. The parent/guardian requests the physician to complete Section II;
- IV. The form must be returned as quickly as possible to the Board of Education;
- V. The physician(s) and medical agency(ies) are contacted as needed for more information;
- VI. The homebound coordinator arranges for a review team to discuss the case and determine the best instructional plan for the student. The review team will consist of the student (when possible), the student's parent/guardian, school principal, homebound coordinator, and others when needed. The purpose of the review team is to determine if homebound instruction should or should not be approved as well as the specific details of the homebound instruction; and
- VII. The student is expected to return to school as soon as possible. Re-evaluation by the attending physician is required every four (4) weeks.

The need for homebound instruction may not be warranted or recommended by the physician. Furthermore, the application for homebound may be refused by the school system upon its review.

Homebound instruction can be revoked at any time:

- Homebound instruction will be revoked when a student approved for homebound instruction is found to be employed on a full-time or part-time basis.
- Homebound instruction will also be revoked if the student is not available to receive instruction as scheduled. Missing three (3) hours of homebound is the equivalent to missing five (5) days of school (unexcused) and will be recorded as such at the appropriate school. When a student is not available to receive the scheduled homebound service, the student will be reported to the Attendance Supervisor for legal actions.

When homebound instruction is revoked, the parents will be notified and the student will be expected to return to school immediately.
