A Note To You

Hello Families,
Please take note of all the exciting events we have planned under "Upcoming Dates". There is more information about dress up dates in your folder today. Please hang onto this flyer!
We will also have a book exchange on December 19th during our Christmas party. There is a flyer/sign up sheet for party treats in your folder with more information about this as well.
Have a great week!
Mrs. Summerfield

Practice At Home

- ❖ UFLI at home practice will guide you through the spelling pattern we are learning in class. Practice, practice, practice! These spelling patterns come and go quickly!
- ❖ Read 20 minutes each night and write it on your December reading log. These will be due after Christmas Break.
- ❖ Math Practice sheets will reflect what we have been learning in class so that you can do a little more at home.

This Week's Agenda

Spelling: The 3 Sounds of -ed

When we add the suffix -ed to a word, we are changing it to past tense. Even though it is the same spelling, it can sound one of three ways.

/ed/ this sound follows the consonants 't' and 'd' like in 'wanted'

/t/ this sound follows consonants that do not use your voice box, like in 'walked' and 'missed'

/d/ this sound follows consonants that do use your voice box, like in 'followed' and 'whispered'

Reading: We will learn about what it is like to be a paleontologist.

Math: We will begin reviewing the basics of time and money.

Social Studies: We will begin learning about different Christmas traditions that are practiced around the world. We will also discuss wants versus needs.
