

The MGM Leadership Class Presents

Holiday Spirit Week

November 27–
December 1,
2023

DRESS UP DAYS	TUESDAY November 28 Holiday Hat & Sock Day	WEDNESDAY November 29 Holiday Shirt Day	THURSDAY November 30 Red & Green Shirt Day	FRIDAY December 1 Flannel Shirt Day
Show your school spirit by participating in dress up days on Tuesday—Friday of Holiday Spirit Week!	Keep your feet warm and wear your favorite holiday socks, and think Santa hats, reindeer antlers, and elf ears for headwear. You must be in a uniform shirt and pants.	Break out your ugliest or most festive holiday sweater, sweatshirt, or t-shirt. You must be in uniform pants.	Show your holiday spirit by wearing a school-appropriate red or green shirt with your uniform pants.	Bundle up and wear your favorite flannel shirt with your uniform pants or jeans with no rips or holes. NO pajama shirts or flannel pants are allowed.

Students who do not comply with the Spirit Week guidelines will be in violation of the school dress code. Attire deemed inappropriate or obscene for school will not be allowed.

TOY DRIVE

Leadership students will be collecting toys and money for the MCPSS Stuff the Bus campaign. Toys must be new and unwrapped.

1ST PERIOD COMPETITION: Leadership students will visit 1st period classes on Friday to collect toys and money. The 1st period class that collects the most toys and money will win a prize. The winners will be determined by the average amount of toys and money collected per student.

Every day of Holiday Spirit Week, be on the lookout for the Elf on the Shelf and his friend Thor on the Door that will be moving throughout the school during the week.

DECK THE DOORS

Each teacher will receive a red paper stocking in their box. Teachers are encouraged to decorate or have students decorate their stocking and hang it outside on or beside their doors to show their holiday spirit.

VIKING CON 23

The leadership class will be hosting Viking Con on Wednesday, November 29 from 7:45-11:00 A.M. in the MGM auditorium. Viking Con is a half-day leadership conference designed to inspire and equip MGM's student leaders. Each MGM club, athletic team, and special program was invited to send 5 students to the conference to represent their group. The day will include leadership teaching, activities, and a scavenger hunt.
