To Kenny reference Power Hours every Friday night on Power 88.

I went through depression and it felt like my life was falling apart.

I'm actually just in town for the night. I moved to Enterprise for a bible school and I won't be able to listen to power hours for the next 8 months or so. I can't leave without saying thanks for all the times the power hours helped me growing up and especially as a teenager. When I went through depression and it felt like my life was falling apart I'd go into my room on Friday nights, turn off the lights and just let the rest of the world go away for little while. So from a weird kid who nobody understood, thanks for being there when nobody else was.
