"STAR³ Students" for March 2022

Archdale Elementary School - Izzah Khan - 2nd Grade

Izzah Khan is a wonderful example of someone worthy of the STAR³ recognition. She comes to school every day with an eagerness to learn and grow. She sets herself apart in many ways, including the respect she shows to her peers and teachers. Izzah is consistently chosen by her peers to be leader. She is a valuable member of her classroom and is known to be thoughtful and fair in all things she does. We are proud of Izzah Khan on a daily basis, she is truly a star student at Archdale Elementary School, and we are proud to select her as our STAR³ Student for March.

Hopewell Elementary School - Alexis Munesy - 3rd Grade

Alexis Munesy is the picture of determination and perseverance. Regardless of challenges Alexis faces, she comes to school every day ready to learn and work hard. She goes above and beyond the expectation in the classroom and never complains. Alexis is more than deserving of this recognition for all she does in the classroom, as well as her continued growth in all subject areas. With her work effort and determination, we know that Alexis will accomplish great things. Hopewell Elementary School is proud to have Alexis Munesy as our STAR³ Student for March.

John Lawrence Elementary School - Ethan Bradshaw - 4th Grade

Ethan Bradshaw has a shining personality, happy smile, and sweet disposition. He is simply a joy to teach. There are many ways to describe his positive character. Ethan is kind and respectful to all of his classmates, courteous to his teachers and other staff, and gives 100% each day. He has made tremendous strides with building independence and taking initiative - especially with his Chromebook. He demonstrates a willingness to learn and a desire to share his learning with others. Ethan has a unique sense of humor and brings an exciting energy into each of our fourth grade classrooms. We truly enjoy having Ethan in fourth grade, and at our school. Congratulations to Ethan Bradshaw, John Lawrence Elementary School's STAR³ Student for March.

New Market Elementary School - Henry Frye - 5th Grade

Henry Frye truly represents what it means to be a STAR student, and both academically and personally, he truly shines. He is positive, kind, and a wonderful role model for his peers. Henry gives 100% every day, no matter the task. From unstacking chairs to assisting his peers on a math problem, he is constantly looking for ways to help and serve. Henry is creative, witty, and a quick thinker. He loves to be challenged, but can also gracefully learn from his mistakes. Henry has a big future, and we look forward to the impact he will continue to make on the people around him. New Market Elementary School is proud to recognize Henry Frye as our STAR³ Student for March.

Randolph Early College High School - Abigail Maze - 11th Grade

Abby Maze is a dedicated, responsible student who epitomizes perseverance and hard work. She arrives to class with a pleasant attitude and an eagerness to tackle the day's assignments. Abby approaches challenging chemistry problems with a positive, can-do attitude. She desires to fully understand the material and does not hesitate to ask questions. Her work is always thoroughly completed to the best of her ability. She is dedicated and steadfast, gives attention to detail, and desires to do things correctly. Abby did an amazing job serving as leader of our Service Learning Showcase team, helping to keep the team on task and focused. Abby is a great listener, values input from others, and makes sure all team member's ideas are heard and considered. In class, she takes a similar approach when working on labs and collaborative activities. She always is willing to respectfully listen to her partner in class. Through productive conversations, she and her partner usually arrive at the correct answer and grow in knowledge and understanding through the learning process. Abby is simply amazing and such a pleasure to teach and work with. Congratulations, Abigail Maze, Randolph Early College High School's STAR³ Student for March.

Trindale Elementary School - Landon Watkins - Kindergarten

Landon Watkins exhibits many admirable character traits and is a great example for his classmates. He is exceptionally respectful, not only to adults, but also to other students. Landon is the first child in our room to volunteer to help his friends in any situation. Whether there is a challenging math problem, an unknown word, or a spill of any sort, Landon is first on the scene and eager to assist. He also is an enthusiastic encourager of his classmates, cheering them on in their own successes. Landon is genuinely happy for them. In truth, he is simply a genuine child - one who always is ready to help others any way he can. Congratulations to Landon Watkins, Trindale Elementary School's STAR³ Student for March.

Trinity Elementary School - Cooper Stephens - Kindergarten

Cooper Stephens works hard every day at school, arriving ready and excited to learn. No matter what is going on around him, Cooper has a smile on his face. He is a good friend to everyone he meets and looks for ways to help others, including his teacher. He is positive to everyone in the school. We are thankful that Cooper Stephens has come to our school this year and we know he will continue to succeed at all he does. Trinity Elementary School is proud to select Cooper Stephens as our STAR³ Student for March.

Trinity High School - David Makupson - 12th Grade

David Makupson is the very embodiment of what it means to be a Trinity High School (THS) Bulldog. There are really not enough positive adjectives to describe David and what he means to the THS community. He is a high-character, team-first student-athlete. Every bit of David's growth in high school has come from his ability to listen, ask questions, and put in the work necessary to excel. In recent years he has been unafraid to get involved and be a voice for the spirit of the THS campus. He exemplifies what it means to "lead by example" and accepts all challenges, while never backing down in times of adversity. This attitude has propelled David to become a stellar role model for young people and a state champion wrestler. Congratulations to David Makupson on being selected as Trinity High School's STAR³ Student for March.

Trinity Middle School - Camila Bedolla-Puente - 6th Grade

As we complete the first year at Trinity Middle School (TMS), we reflect on what it has meant to be a TMS Bulldog: commitment, hard work, and caring for those around us. Camila Bedolla-Puente is a perfect example of the TMS student. She is a hard worker with a quiet disposition and is willing to put in time and effort to make sure she grasps new skills and concepts. She has taken a leadership role in helping a new student who is a new English speaker. Camila has been a peer teacher and guide for this new student as she becomes adjusted to life in Randolph County. Camila never complains and is appreciative of all the new knowledge she is gaining as a new middle school student. We are proud to recognize Camila Bedolla-Puente as Trinity Middle School's STAR³ Student for March.

Wheatmore High School - Hannah Davenport - 12th Grade

Hannah Davenport is very outgoing, responsible, and energetic, and always is willing to help others in any way she can. She always is smiling, laughing, and exhibiting joy. Not many seniors arrive at school early to volunteer, but Hannah does so to offer extra help with our Occupational Course of Study students. She is patient and loving with these students, understanding that they have unique learning needs. Hannah is the best sister to her brother, very supportive to everyone, and always willing to help when needed. From speaking at Beta Club inductions to giving tours during open house, Hannah is someone Wheatmore can rely upon. She believes in fairness to all. Hannah is a member of the Beta Club, is dual enrolled in courses at Randolph Community College, plays on the softball team, and works part-time, all awhile maintaining a grade point average above 4.2. Hannah Davenport is quite deserving of being Wheatmore High School's STAR³ Student for March.

Wheatmore Middle School - Brianna Lawrence - 6th Grade

Brianna Lawrence is an enthusiastic learner who enjoys school. She is willing to help others when needed, including the teachers. Brianna exhibits a positive outlook and attitude in the classroom, and takes responsibility for her learning by making sure to complete all of his assignments. She is active in class discussions and always tries her best. Congratulations to Brianna Lawrence, Wheatmore Middle School's STAR³ Student for March.
