Students will be assessed on each of the novels when we start class; students will write an in-class essay on one of the novels and a processed, take-home essay on the other novel. 2. Additionally, students are required to complete a Major Work Review for each of the two books. The template for this assignment has been emailed to you. You may also pick up a hard copy of this assignment. These should be handwritten; typed Major Work Reviews will not be accepted. Major Work Reviews will be collected on the first day of class. The Major Work Review template can be found online at mhspanthers.com under the library's summer reading link.
