Mrs. Farrell, yes, Mrs. Gober-Mangan, yes, Dr. Campenni, yes.

Motion passed.

Open Discussion:

Mr. Stofko wanted it noted that Mr. McNeil was the top candidate for the position and received recommendations from the community. Bob Trusavage of West Pittston, asked under Robert Rules do you have to explain why you abstain. Mr. Stofko responded yes, you should, you can ask but the board can refuse. Mrs. Yochem and Mrs. Degan stated they abstained because they didn't have enough of information. Mr. Yorina stated the policy should be modified.

Joe McCabe of Exeter, commented that at the last meeting it was brought up who is responsible if our athletic director makes a mistake with a player on the team. The principal intervened and said he is responsible. Mr. McCabe asked if the board is making decisions in the future for who is responsible? Mr. McCabe didn't think the athletic director should be making the decisions and asked if the board made any decisions on it. Dr. Campenni responded that the athletic director reports to the principal. Mr. Quaglia stated there has never been an issue. Mr. McCabe asked Mr. Bernardi at last month's meeting if Wyoming Area ever applied for referendum for exceptions and Mr. Bernardi responded no. Mr. McCabe read a report on referendum exceptions. Mr. McCabe also commented that at the reorganization meeting he entered the building, went to the men's room and then entered the lobby where John Marianacci and Mrs. Farrell were standing. Mr. McCabe stated he had background checks for many positions that he held. He stated he came to the meeting and explained if he has a question as a taxpayer he is going to ask it. He was asked by Mrs. Farrell "What are you doing here?" and said he had a right to be here as a taxpayer. Mr. Marianacci asked him how he was doing. At this time, Mr. McCabe asked Mr. Marianacci if he remembers the statement "What are you doing here." Mr. McCabe then asked if Wyoming Area has any security set up to protect the audience and the board. Response was we have officers at the meetings. Attorney Ferentino stated he doesn't know what one has to do with the other. Mr. McCabe stated he just wanted to let the board know what happened. Mr. McCabe stated anyone has a right to come to the meetings to express themselves. Mrs. Farrell stated she never said that.
