Hate Crimes Surge Across US, Lawmakers Sound Alarm as American Jews Bear the Brunt

As hate crimes continue to rise across the United States, lawmakers are urgently calling for action. Violent attacks targeting Jewish and minority communities are at the forefront of the U.S. Senate Judiciary Committee's latest discussions. The hearing, originally aimed at addressing antisemitism on college campuses, quickly broadened to cover the alarming rise in hate incidents across the country.

Samaritan's Purse pledges to donate an additional 20 armored ambulances to Israel: 'Need is so great'

Reverend Franklin Graham of Samaritan's Purse surprised Israel's emergency services system with a pledge to donate 20 more ambulances on Thursday during a dedication ceremony of two armored ambulances.

Pastor Terrorized, Arrested for 'Reading the Bible Aloud' Scores 'Complete Victory'

A Washington pastor scored a major victory last week after being arrested at least twice for preaching the Gospel in public. According to Nate Kellum, senior counsel at First Liberty Institute. The lawyer told CBN News how the situation began on June 24, 2022, how it was resolved, and why it matters.

Missouri Republican Josh Hawley says the nuclear family is under attack and that’s bad news for America.

Speaking at an event organized by Coral Ridge Ministries, Hawley warned that the family is “under assault from a bunch of our popular culture, but also from policy and from our government. I mean, we have a tax code that penalizes marriage.”

The senator went on to add that faith is the only thing that can save the nation.

American Pastor Freed from Chinese Prison After Nearly 2 Decades in Captivity

A California pastor is free and back on American soil tonight after enduring nearly two decades of Chinese government persecution and prison. Pastor David Lin had frequently traveled to China in the 1990s to spread the gospel, according to China Aid, a U.S.-based advocacy group for persecuted activists in China.

AG sues Columbus City Schools for breaking Ohio law by not busing non-public school students Attorney

General Dave Yost filed a lawsuit against the Columbus City Schools after warning earlier in the week it must resume busing private and charter school students or it will be breaking the law. It’s the combination of more families using taxpayer-paid vouchers to send their kids to other schools along with a bus driver shortage that’s been going on for four years.

Highlights from Letters to Power

I just want you guys to know that I am loving your radio station down here. We are on vacation in gulf shores and I am loving the Christian music you guys are playing. I’m from Birmingham and we have a couple of good Christian stations too but sometimes when you go out of town it's hard to find some really good Christian stations you love. Just wanted to give you guys props 🙌

Tell us your story of how Christian Radio has touched your life.
