Dear Parishioners,

Welcome to official Summer. For me, official start is the the feast of the Nativity of John the Baptist. It is celebrated on June 24, after the summer solstice, the longest day of the year, for a few reasons – one is that according to St. Luke, his conception occurred in late September (Zachariah was serving in the temple and his division of Abijah served mid-September when the Archangel Gabriel appeared to him). The other is that from the longest day, daylight lessens until the winter solstice, around December 21, when it begins to grow. St. John the Baptist stated that he must become less so that Christ must become more.

As we enter into summer, perhaps we are doing our own becoming less – hopefully for most of us, summer might be a time slowing down and for more leisure – of enjoying nature whether through fishing, boating, swimming, or just out for long walks. But we need to remember that we cannot take vacation from God.

I offer a gentle reminder of the Sunday obligation. Attending Mass on another day of the week, watching it online, or attending a non-Catholic service does not meet the obligation. If you are traveling and attempting to attend Mass on a Sunday is difficult (there is no Catholic church within a reasonable distance or that you are at the whims of others such as an airline, cruise, or tour bus that has not incorporated time for Mass attendance, call me (or your pastor if you are not a parishioner at St. Ed's or St. Eloi) for a dispensation.

A dispensation is basically permission to miss Mass for good reason. It is granted on a case-by-case basis and offered only to individuals and their immediate family, not on a blanket basis (only a bishop can do that). Of course, for the sick, there is no need for a dispensation. Typically, I suggest reading the Sunday readings or praying a rosary, at least in part. This does not replace Mass (nothing can) but offers an opportunity for some spiritual growth.

Our attentiveness to this contributes to a renewed awareness of the Eucharist. If we understand that we are giving great opportunity to be in the presence of our Eucharistic Lord Sunday after Sunday, we might understand why attendance rises to obligation. Sunday Mass attendance is important, because Christ invited us to His presence at least once a week, and to celebrate His resurrection on Sundays.

In Christ,
Fr. Todd

SO DON'T BE AFRAID;
you are worth more than many sparrows.

✠ For the sick, especially the ones around us

✠ For an increase in vocations to the priesthood and religious life

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY – St. Ed's & St. Eloi

We are searching for a part time Director of Religious Education (DRE) starting late summer. A strong background in education or child development or similar field is necessary, a college degree is preferred. A strong vibrant Catholic faith is required.

The position entails registration and communication with the families and youth of the parishes of St. Edward and St. Eloi, as well as coordinating, training, and supporting the catechists, reviewing the programs, ordering supplies, and other related activities.

This position is for not more than 19 hours, however there is the potential of combining this position with one of several open positions at St. Edward Catholic School. (Contact Mrs Jaci Garvey if interested in the open positions there.)

If interested, contact St. Edward Catholic Church or contact Fr. Todd Petersen.

COOKIES AND FELLOWSHIP – St. Eloi

Our cookie and fellowship tradition in our gathering space continues with your help. Would you be willing to bring 6 dozen cookies for a Sunday or two?

If you would like to help out, please contact Sandy Nuytten at 829.9690 (or email her at snuytten@frontiernet.net).

LITURGY MATTERS #33

The priest has led this whole prayer, speaking in the name of the Church, acting in the person of Christ. To all that Christ has done, to all that is happening, the assembly cries out a resounding Amen. This is the biggest Amen of the Mass and so is the biggest Amen in the world. This Amen never ends; it is eternal as it echoes around the globe, echoes throughout the centuries, and echoes in the halls of heaven.

After the Great Amen that closes the Eucharistic prayer, the whole assembly is on its feet because it has been carried by this prayer into the very presence of God and into its future in Christ. Hidden in the image is the assembly standing with Christ in heaven before the throne of God.

Now begins another unit of the Mass referred to as the communion rite. It begins with the Lord's Prayer. The Lord's Prayer is an invocation of God by a name that is possible for us to call Him only through our communion in the sacrifice of Christ: the name "Father."

It is important for us to remember that Jesus gave us this prayer as a way of healing with the Father. In a very real sense, the Lord's Prayer is a formula for healing.

Praise + Forgiveness = Healing.

Following the Lord's Prayer is the Sign of Peace. This is a ritual exchange, not a practical greeting.

By means of the set phrase, "Peace be with you," and a gesture which signifies our love for one another in Christ, we are playing out yet another dimension of communion; namely, our being joined together as one body in Christ. We who have just said together to God, "Our Father," in consequence now turn to one another and say, "Brother" and "Sister." We who have just prayed, "Forgive us as we forgive," turn to one another with this sign of reconciliation among ourselves.

The third part of the communion rite consists of the "Breaking of the Bread." This is the most ancient term by which Christians called the Mass. Here we sing, "Lamb of God," and are addressing Jesus himself by this title. He is our Passover Lamb whose body has been sacrificed, whose blood has been poured out for the forgiveness of our sins.

This hymn is the same song sung eternally in the feast of heaven which the apostle reported in the book of Revelation: "As my vision continued, I heard the voices of many angels who surrounded the throne and the living creatures and the elders. They were countless in number, thousands and tens of thousands, and they cried out, 'Worthy is the Lamb that was slain!'" (Revelation 5:11-12). Or again, "This is the wedding day of the Lamb...Happy are they who have been invited to the wedding feast of the Lamb!" (Revelation 19:7, 9).
