Houston County High School JROTC Earns Highest Rating During Recent Evaluation

HOUSTON COUNTY, GA – The Air Force Junior ROTC Black Knight Cadets of Houston County High School recently earned an overall unit assessment score of “Exceeds Standards” during a recent formal unit evaluation by the Department of the Air Force. “Exceeds Standards” is the highest rating attainable.

The unit’s instructors, Major (Retired) LaVondra Scarver and Master Sergeant (Retired) Philip Turner, have created a dynamic and supportive learning environment, coupled with an excellent community outreach for this distinguished unit. Instructors have provided outstanding leadership while administering this cadet-centered citizenship program and leadership lab.

Houston County High School cadets have performed exceptionally well and take great pride in leading and accomplishing their unit goals and activities. The Houston County High School Black Knight Air Force Junior ROTC citizenship program is making a positive impact on cadets, the school, and in the community.

Houston County High School is located at 920 Highway 96 in Warner Robins. For more information about the school, visit <https://hchs.hcbe.net/>.
