

SGSC PARENT NEWSLETTER

SEPTEMBER 27TH - OCTOBER 1ST, 2021

FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Good afternoon Everyone,

We are so excited to see our students this week! Again, we would just like to remind parents/guardians to please send your child to school each day that you are able. It is extremely hard to get students caught and introduced to the instruction that they miss when they are out. Thank you for working with us on this important effort of increasing attendance. We are lucky to have such wonderful parents/guardians at SGSC!

The end of the first quarter of school is near and report cards will be send home on October 12th when we return from Fall Break. Please know that all missing work assignments must be completed before leaving for Fall Break on October 7th. If you are unsure if your child is missing assignments, please reach out to the teachers. Also, if you need assistance logging into our Student Information System - Infinite Campus - to review grades and assignments, please contact Nicole Horn at nhorn@sowegastemcharter.org for assistance.

We are so thankful to our staff for all that they are doing to serve those in person and those that are quarantining! If you would like to nominate a Staff member for a SHOUT OUT, please click the link below to complete the form! Thanks so much for recognizing our staff and all of their efforts!

Staff Shout Out Form: <https://forms.gle/ngToLSDxjNZ8HjwH6>

As always, if you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to send me an email at galmon@sowegastemcharter.org.

Sincerely,
Ginger Almon

FROM MS. MCBRIDE...

Whether your child is in elementary, middle, or high school, every child will eventually need clear and consistent help with their homework. As homework can directly impact a child's success in the classroom, as well as his or her overall educational development. By using positive steps proven to boost student performance, parents can intervene prior to a child's struggles with homework ever begin to surface.

1. Establish a Routine

That means helping students designate a set time and place where they can comfortably – and routinely – hit the books without being disturbed.

2. Create Boundaries

This may entail that a teenager's cell phone must be turned off during homework time, or a child's television or radio must be off until assignments are complete.

3. Get Organized

This might include creating a homework schedule or outlining daily progress goals.

4. Accountability and Responsibility

Parents should have clear rules about writing down assignments in a notebook or remembering to bring all necessary homework materials, such as books or calculators, home each night.

5. Encourage and Support

Approach homework with a positive attitude, and consistently reward the child with positive verbal feedback.

FROM OUR INSTRUCTIONAL COACHES...

Parents and Guardians,

Happy Fall Parents!

As many of you have already noticed, your child brought home the results from their beginning of the year STAR assessment. We held a virtual parent meeting Thursday explaining how and why SGSC uses STAR to assess our students' early literacy, reading and math skills. If you were unable to attend, the information we presented is linked below. Feel free to contact your child's teacher if you have any specific questions about your child's report.
