Highlights from Letters to Power 88

To Power 88:

I’d just like to say thank you. I work construction and travel a lot. But what an inspiration it is to get in the car with my family and hear our 7 year old son sing along just about every word. I was sitting here making our bills and had a little left. I hope my little bit helps for it is truly from our hearts.

Power of the Tongue

The tongue has the power of life and death, and those who love it will eat its fruit. ~

Proverbs 18:21

Words have the power to motivate or destroy, energize or deflate, inspire or create despair.

Many successful people can remember the time their father failed to give affirmation to them as a child. The result was either overachievement to prove their worth, or underachievement to prove he was right.

Many a wife has lost her ability to love because of a critical husband. Many a husband has left a marriage because of words of disrespect and ungratefulness. Stories abound regarding the power of words. There are just as many stories of those who have been encouraged, challenged, and comforted with words that made a difference in their lives.

Jesus knew the power of words. He used parables to convey His principles of the Kingdom of God. He used words of forgiveness and mercy. He used words to challenge. He used words to inspire His disciples to miraculous faith.

Do your words give life? Do they inspire and challenge others to greatness? Who does God want you to encourage through your words today? Affirm someone close to you today
