MANY MOONS

Native Americans had special names for every full moon of the year. One name for this month's full moon is the "Full Crust Moon," because by March snow cover is melting during the day and re-freezing and crusting over by night.

★ OUR NATION'S HISTORY ★

Beginning with a severe famine in the 1840's, millions of Irish people came to America seeking a better life and greater freedom. By the late 1800's, New York had a larger population of people born in Ireland than did Dublin, the Irish capital. Today, more than 30 million Americans claim Irish heritage, more than seven times the entire population of Ireland.

BARNYARD MANNERS

When a rooster finds something good to eat in the course of making his rounds, he will often call his flock over to eat first before he eats. He even has a special call to let the hens know that he has found something tasty. So the next time someone accuses you of having barnyard manners, tell them thanks!
