Tennessee Comprehensive Assessment Program (TCAP)

- All students in grades 3 through 8 will take the TCAP in a few weeks
- This multi-part assessment gives us valuable information about your child's progress towards mastery of the state standards
- This new law is based on your child's performance on the ELA portion of the TCAP

“Learning and working to a higher standard”

Components of ELA TCAP

- Four subparts taken over the course of several days
- The ELA assessment will assess the Tennessee Academic Standards through literary and informational texts requiring students to demonstrate the ability to read closely, analyze text, answer text-dependent questions, provide a written response to a prompt, and demonstrate command of the English language.
- There are four levels of student performance:

Below, Approaching, Meets, Exceeds Expectations

Benchmark Testing

- Mastery Connect benchmarks are aligned with TCAP and give us a prediction of your child's performance on the test
- Benchmarks are administered three times throughout the year
- Results are used to guide instruction
- Third Benchmark results will be available in a few weeks (being completed this week)

Student Participation in TCAP

- Students who do not participate in the ELA portion of the TCAP will be treated as if they are not proficient in ELA
- The process for students who move to TN after third grade or are homeschooled for third grade are constantly under amendment

TCAP Scoring

- The TDOE sets the cut scores for the different performance levels
- Students who “Meet” or “Exceed” Expectations on TCAP will be promoted to 4th grade
- Students who score “Approaching” or “Below” Expectations will be offered the following academic supports:

More About the Act

The retention and promotion requirements outlined in the law apply to all students. The law also contains specific provisions related to students with disabilities. The state “retention law” does not supersede federal requirements of IDEA and Section 504, and students may not be retained based solely on their disability or suspected disability.
