

Third Grade Weekly Newsletter

General Reminders and Information

Tuesday, November 1st: 12:00 dismissal

3rd Grade * Headphones: We have a few extra headphones in the classroom; however, it is helpful when students have their own headphones to use in class. They can keep headphones in their backpacks.	Science/Social Studies—Mrs. Jenkins In Social Studies we will continue to talk about Ancient Civilizations. We will wrap up our study of Ancient China this week. In Science we will continue to talk about Life Processes and adaptations of animals and plants. We will continue working on the writing project this week. A special activity is also in the works for this week! :) Ancient China Test- November 4, 2022
Math—Mrs. Snyder In math this week, we will be working on telling time to the nearest minute. Homework: Students will be given a homework page on Monday, October 31. It will be due back on Friday, November 4. If they finish it earlier than that they are more than welcome to turn it in sooner!	Reading - Mrs. Aylor This week, students will continue practicing synonyms and antonyms. During small groups, students will continue practicing how to make inferences based on what they know and what they have read in the story. They will also explore how a suffix changes the meaning of a word. Thank you for your support at home. Thursday, November 2nd: Test on synonyms, antonyms, and nonfiction text features. A study guide for text features went home on Thursday, October 27th. Author Study: Patricia Polacco Please continue to aim to read each night.
