Four Schools in Houston County to Receive Military Flagship School Award

HOUSTON COUNTY, GA – Four schools in Houston County have been selected by the Georgia Department of Education as a 2023-2024 Military Flagship School. On Tuesday, April 9, State Superintendent Richard Woods will present a Military Flagship School banner to Lake Joy Elementary School, Mossy Creek Middle School, Veterans High School, and Bonaire Primary School. The Military Flagship School Award recognizes schools that provide a supportive environment for military students and families by recognizing and accommodating their unique needs.

The ceremonies will take place at the following times:

- Lake Joy Elementary – 9:00 a.m.
- Mossy Creek Middle – 9:50 a.m.
- Veterans High – 10:40 a.m.
- Bonaire Primary – 11:30 a.m.

At least one school from Houston County has received this award since the program began. Previous winners include Hilltop Elementary School, Warner Robins High School, Langston Road Elementary School, Bonaire Elementary School, Bonaire Middle School, and Matt Arthur Elementary School.
