WILLIAMSBURG COUNTY SCHOOL DISTRICT CELEBRATES COACH ANGNETTE OWENS' 20 YEARS OF EXCELLENCE AND SERVICE

The Williamsburg County School District proudly celebrates Coach Angnette Owens of Kingstree High School for receiving the South Carolina Athletic Coaches Association (SCACA) Outstanding Service Award in recognition of 20 years of coaching excellence and dedicated service. This prestigious honor recognizes Coach Owens' unwavering commitment to student-athletes, the coaching profession, and interscholastic athletics throughout South Carolina.

For more than two decades, Coach Owens has devoted her career to helping young people succeed academically, athletically, and personally. Whether in the classroom, on the court, or on the field, she has consistently demonstrated a passion for developing the whole child while serving as an educator, coach, mentor, and role model for generations of students.

Affectionately known throughout the Kingstree High School community as "Mama Owens," she has earned the respect and admiration of students, colleagues, and families through her compassion, encouragement, and unwavering support. Coach Owens actively assists with the school's basketball, volleyball, and softball programs while also serving as one of the football team's most dedicated supporters, regularly attending Friday night games to cheer on the Blazers and promote school pride.

Throughout her coaching career, Coach Owens has impacted countless student-athletes by instilling the values of teamwork, discipline, perseverance, integrity, and sportsmanship. Her influence extends far beyond athletic competition, as she has consistently inspired students to strive for excellence in the classroom, in athletics, and in life.

The South Carolina Athletic Coaches Association's Outstanding Service Award is presented to coaches who have demonstrated long-term dedication and exemplary service to the coaching profession. Coach Owens now joins an esteemed group of South Carolina educators whose contributions have strengthened athletic programs and positively influenced generations of young people.

Coach Owens' dedication reflects Williamsburg County School District's mission to empower every scholar through meaningful relationships, high expectations, and unwavering support. Her legacy is a testament to the lasting impact that caring educators and coaches have on the lives of young people.

The mission of Williamsburg County School District is to prepare students for college, careers, and citizenship in a global society.
