

Fuqua School Theater Honor Society

Overview

The Fuqua School Theater Honor Society recognizes the achievements of outstanding theater students and provides for their continued growth and development in the performing arts. The society serves as a creative outlet for highly motivated, talented students and works to bring a broader awareness of the discipline to the school and community. Students participate in enrichment activities and projects designed to hone their skills and develop their potential.

Eligibility Requirements

1. Was enrolled as a student in grades 9, 10, or 11;
2. Successfully completed theater;
3. Achieved a minimum GPA of 3.3 in one or more dramatic arts courses;
4. Meets Fuqua School's minimum standard for overall GPA (not on academic probation);
5. Committed no serious behavior violation (level III or higher) throughout the previous academic year nor behaved in a manner that resulted in behavior probation.

Application Process

1. Complete and submit the Fuqua School Theater Honor Society application to the sponsor of the society. The application includes the preparation of a monologue selected from an approved list or of the applicant's choosing that is approved by the sponsor.
2. Perform the monologue for Ms. Giles and current members of the society.
3. Be interviewed by current members regarding possible induction into the Society.

Election

Students who meet all eligibility requirements and successfully complete the application process will be elected into the Fuqua School Theater Honor Society. They will be eligible to participate in all society meetings and activities, and hold office within the chapter.

Membership Retention

To retain membership, the student must maintain a minimum 3.3 GPA in theater classes and continue to meet all eligibility requirements for behavior.

Application for Admission to the Fuqua School Theater Honor Society

In addition to filing this application with the chapter sponsor, you will need to prepare a monologue for performance at the next meeting of the society. Please be prepared to answer questions about your choice of monologue, performance, and interest in the society following the performance.
