Principal MS/HS James Bagwell reported they completed the fall NWEA testing and was happy to see growth and improvements of the students. Dec 27th student council will be showing Wrestle Mania starting @ 4 p.m. Dec. 29th student council will be hosting an all-girls sleep over here at school. They are hoping for 90% school attendance rate for the next month, 6th grade won the battle of the classes with 88% attendance incentives.

Deb Cross director Ex. Ed indicated they were busy with 9 IEP meetings, she administrated 2 Brack school Readiness assessments. They have 6 students in the work study program, that work various positions here at school. 4 students and their parents met with Richard Olauson (state vocational rehab).to do paperwork needed for their services. Others have met with Heath Ducheneaux, another student attended "Let's Talk Work" workshop in Rapid City. A parent training on Nov. 16th was attended by 9 parents. Topic was "From Child Find to Services and Support".

Elementary principal Amelia Blackbear reported students were busy making paper moccasins during Native American Heritage month for Nov. Social Emotional classes are being taught by Project Aware daily. The Christmas program will be held on Dec. 12th. The retreat for the CHS Staff was thoroughly enjoyed by all and had a great time during the 2 days of the retreat. Elementary drum group is doing a great job in the morning to start the day. The Home School Liaison is checking on student attendance and getting letters out for absences on 2-5-7 and 10 days.

Jodi Stoddard, School Improvement and Student Success Director, stated they are looking for options for bringing in additional licensed counselors. They also have 2 social worker positions and a Student Employee Assistant Program Coordinator position open. The visit to Huron's SDIEA Youth Day was a success with 3 students filling out applications and 1 student filling out an application to Creighton University. The BARR program has been going great, with staff meetings weekly. The BARR staff have completed 2 onsite visits to the school. NHS is hosting a toy drive and fund raising. More college visits are being planned for next semester.
