Sixth Sunday of Easter

In the Gospel today, Jesus says to us: "If you love me, you will keep my commandments...Whoever loves me will be loved by my Father and I will love him and reveal myself to him. When we give to the poor, God indeed pours his love, peace and joy into our hearts, into our lives and through us into the hearts of those who are poor."

"He is not here, but he has been raised. Remember what he said to you while he was still in Galilee, that the Son of Man must be handed over to sinners and be crucified, and rise on the third day."
Luke 24: 6-7

We stand in awe of Jesus's sacrifice on the cross. As we celebrate the Resurrection, let His love transform us, renewing and making us more like Christ in compassion, humility, and selflessness.
