❖ Student Presentation

Three AVID students, Yareli Cruz, Daisy Cisneros and Jeda Dionisio, gave a presentation on micro-scholarships available from many colleges based on high school accomplishments. They are designated ambassadors for the program having received recommendations, completed an application and required assignments. Raiseme.com allows students to enter their achievements and receive offers of financial aid pending acceptance. It may assist students in determining where they want to attend. More schools are participating each year.

❖ Steve Molina's presentation

S. Molina had another obligation and could not attend. S. Herrera shared there is a legal requirement to review the process for developing the school plan. It is an integrated accountability system showing a cycle of continuous improvement. The plan should be developed with input from all advisory groups and be aligned with LEA goals based on data. A schoolwide plan should include a comprehensive needs assessment that identifies priorities and effective strategies with an annual evaluation. S. Herrera shares data monthly with the site council using the school dashboard, reviewing state priorities, test results and progress monitoring updates. A distribution outlining parent involvement opportunities at PVHS was shared.
