

OIG Hotline

- If you have information about fraud, waste, abuse or mismanagement, as well as other crimes or violations of Federal laws, rules, and regulations, relating to U.S. Department of Education or Federal Programs expenditures you may report it to the Office of Inspector General (OIG) Hotline. Such information includes allegations concerning contracts, grants, public corruption, conflict of interest, and other criminal or serious non-criminal misconduct involving employees, contractors/sub-contractors, and grantees/sub-grantees.

You can submit your report to the OIG through one of two options.

The Hotline may be used for unclassified information only at <https://oig.state.gov/hotline>.

To submit classified information, contact the Hotline at (202) 647-3320 for further instructions.
