IMMEDIATE RELEASE

WILLIAMSBURG COUNTY ADULT EDUCATION CELEBRATES CLASS OF 2026 GRADUATES

Williamsburg County Adult Education proudly celebrated the achievements of the Class of 2026 during its Commencement Ceremony held on Wednesday, May 27, 2026, in the Dr. Rose H. Wilder Multipurpose Room at the Williamsburg County School District Office. The ceremony recognized graduates who successfully completed the requirements to earn their high school equivalency credentials while also obtaining workforce and digital literacy certifications.

The evening highlighted the determination, perseverance, and commitment demonstrated by the graduates as they balanced educational pursuits with work, family, and personal responsibilities. Family members, friends, district leaders, faculty, and community supporters gathered to honor the accomplishments of the graduates and celebrate their educational journey.

The ceremony opened with a prelude by Mr. Te'Quan Coe of Kingstree Middle Magnet School of the Arts and included the posting of colors by Kingstree Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 6500. Graduate Michael McFadden, Jr. led the Pledge of Allegiance, while graduate NyJuan Hickson delivered the welcome. Special guests were recognized by Dr. Tyrone Frasier, Director of Williamsburg County Adult Education.

A farewell address was delivered by graduate James Armstrong, Jr., and a musical dedication was presented by Zion Scott of Kingstree Middle Magnet School of the Arts. Graduates were presented by College and Career Navigator Ms. Gwenevere Moody, with diplomas awarded by Dr. Tyrone Frasier, Superintendent Dr. Lamont Moore, Interim Superintendent Dr. Angela Jacobs, Assistant Superintendent Dr. Genia E. Smith, and College and Career Navigator Ms. Lashandra Matthews.

The Williamsburg County Adult Education Class of 2026 included the following graduates:

- James Edward Armstrong, Jr.
- Reginald Scott Barkers
- Ja'Vontae Omarion Brunson
- Mokeya Lashay Fulton
- NyJuan Keyon Hickson
