Why 2021 Is Still a Great Time for Radio

God has used our radio ministry to reconcile people to God. That is a staggering reality, one for which only God can get the credit.

The words may have come from my mouth—or, rather, from their radio speakers. But God gave the growth. When I hear stories of people receiving new life, new encouragement, and new insight because of our broadcasts, I'm encouraged and humbled. - J.D. Greear is the pastor of The Summit Church, in Raleigh-Durham, North Carolina \(Read full story click here\)

NC Lt. Gov. Mark Robinson under attack over anti-LGBT views

"There's no reason anybody anywhere in America should be telling any child about transgenderism, homosexuality, any of that filth," Robinson said at Asbury Baptist Church in Seagrove.

Five Bible Verses to Remember When You're Overwhelmed by the News

Social media can be great; it provides a bridge to people with whom we might otherwise rarely — if ever — connect. As believers, it can also give us access to specific details, so that our prayers can be more attuned to the myriad needs that exist in the world. But if ever there was a double-edged sword, this is it.
