Too Good for Drugs/Violence lessons are taught to both first and second grade students. The students learn the following: how to make healthy choices, build friendships, harmful effects of alcohol and tobacco, safe and healthy ways to use medications, how to set reachable goals, make responsible decisions, respond to emotions in healthy ways, use I-messages to help communicate assertively, and practice active listening skills.

Think First and Stay Safe (Erin's Law) lessons are taught to Pre-K and first and second grade students at PPS. Think First & Stay Safe is an age-appropriate, non-frightening, and personal body safety education program. Under Erin's Law, Autauga schools are required to teach age appropriate personal body safety in grades Pre-K -12.
