

Sales & Disposal of Books, Equipment & Supplies; Disposition of Outdated Books

When equipment, books and materials become worn out, obsolete, surplus, or otherwise unusable in the schools, the principal may authorize their disposal in a manner to the school's best advantage.

Any proceeds from disposition of equipment or supplies shall be deposited in the town general fund.

The Board of Education may, upon recommendation of the principal, authorize the disbursement or destruction of outdated textbooks that are no longer useful to the educational program, provided that such books are deemed obsolete by the professional administrative staff.

When books are sold either to used book vendors or shredders, this money must be returned to the town general fund.
