

6th Grade-Tibbals

December 1- December 20, 2024

December News

I can statements:

Science: Students who demonstrate understanding can: Develop a model to describe the cycling of water through Earth's systems driven by energy from the Sun and the force of gravity.

Students who demonstrate understanding can: Collect data to provide evidence for how the motions and complex interactions of air masses results in changes in weather conditions.

Social studies: I can study the geography, culture, historical events, and government of Mexico.

Math: I can write and evaluate algebraic expressions for real-world contextual situations.

I can create and solve an algebraic equation or inequality from a word problem and then justify my answer.

Reading: Analyze the meaning of words and phrases, including figurative, and connotative meanings

Compare and contrast, evaluate text in different genres in how they approach themes and topics

Articulate why the author uses a particular sentence, paragraph, chapter, or section and how that effects the overall structure of a text.

Writing: I can write informative/explanatory text to thoroughly examine a topic or idea.

I can improve my writing through revision and editing with my peers or adults.

I can gather information from multiple sources and provide basic bibliographic information.

December Novel: Things Not Seen, by Andrew Clements

Important Dates for December

Friday, December 6:

November Book proj. due

Dress up day- winter sock & cozy sweaters

Thursday, December 12:

spelling packets due

Late Start @ 10:15

Friday, December 13:

spelling Test

Dress up day- Flannel
Friday

Tuesday, December 17:

Mexico Test

Wednesday, December 18:

All school field trip!
UI girls' basketball game

Friday, December 20:

Winter Fun Festival and holiday concert

Dress up day- "Candy Cane Colors"

December 25- January 3:

Winter Break

December Dress-Up Fun!

Dec. 6: “Winter Socks and Cozy Sweaters”

Dec. 13: “Flannel Friday”

Dec. 20: “Candy Cane Colors”

December 18th- UI Basketball Game: All elementary students will head out to the UI ICCU to watch a UI woman’s basketball game. Buses leave at 10:25 AM. There was a really fun event last year and everyone is looking forward to going!

December 22nd Winter Festival: Students are invited to wear candy cane colors as we spend the day doing crafts, games, activities, watching the animated film (rated G), and drinking hot cocoa. Classes will be put into K-5 mixed groups and sixth graders will be leading each activity as they move throughout the school!

Holiday Concert: Each class will perform at different times, please see details below.

*5/6: 8:30

*3-4: 9:00

*K-2: 9:30

Chilly weather: Please help your student remember to dress for the weather. It is chilly and often wet during recess time. Students go outside to recess unless it is significantly raining or below 10 degrees Fahrenheit.

No Book Project for December!

Have a restful and wonderful holiday!

Let me know if you have any questions or comments!
(208)835-4261
ctibbals@troysd287.org

