

Student Records

To attain student records, a legal guardian must sign a Records Request Form to be submitted to the student's last district school. Records will be sent within a week's time to the address in the demographic form, handed to the legal guardian, or to the school that requested the records.