

Angel of Hope for Covington County Scholarship 2024

Deadline: April 26, 2024

Scholarship Overview

Angel of Hope for Covington County was formed in 2022 to erect an Angel of Hope and Memorial Garden in Andalusia as a place of reflection and remembrance for grieving parents and others touched by the loss of a child of any age, bringing healing and hope to everyone.

Angel of Hope for Covington County is committed to supporting local students who have endured a personal loss or faced a crisis. Our Angel of Hope for Covington County Scholarship will grant $1,500 to one senior from each of the six high schools in Covington County (Andalusia, Opp, Florala, Pleasant Home, Red Level, and Straughn). The committee will consider the personal essay, academics, extra-curricular activities, work experience, and community service.

Application Process & Requirements

The application is in a Google Form. We will not accept paper applications. Here is the link for the Google Form:

<https://forms.gle/nCCvWBqdCAKrb8Dx7>

To complete this application, you must email a resume, a transcript, a letter of recommendation from a school employee, and a personal essay on the topic: finding healing and hope in the midst of adversity. You may include a description/narration of the adverse situation, how you dealt with the issue, and how overcoming adversity will help you in the future. Please write the essay yourself. This email should be sent to angelofhopefccscholarship@gmail.com with YourLastName_AOHCC in the subject line. Applications will not be considered complete without the submission of all of these items by the deadline, Friday, April 26, 2024, at 3:00 p.m. If you have any questions, please email angelofhopefccscholarship@gmail.com

Scholarships will be presented at each school's awards day program. Winners and their parents will be invited to a reception at the Angel of Hope for Covington County Statue in Robinson Park, Andalusia, AL.

Terms and Conditions:

- Only students who are enrolled in one of the following schools are eligible: Andalusia High School, Opp High School, Florala High School, Pleasant Home School, Red Level School, and Straughn High School.
- The scholarship payment will be sent directly to the institution (community college, college, university) of the recipient's choice.
- Angel of Hope for Covington County reserves the right to verify all information, including the date of high school graduation and school enrollment status with a high school official.

- To enter, you must submit your application to angelofhopefccscholarship@gmail.com no later than the deadline listed in the application page. Incomplete applications will not be considered.
- Do not use your school email address. Use one that can be used long term so that board members can stay in touch in the future.
- All applications become the property of Angel of Hope for Covington County and will not be returned.
- Requirements in addition to submitting Google Form:

To complete this application, you must email the following:

1. a résumé,
2. a transcript,
3. a letter of recommendation from a school employee, and
4. a personal essay on the topic: finding healing and hope in the midst of adversity. You may include a description/narration of the adverse situation, how you dealt with the issue, and how overcoming adversity will help you in the future. Please write the essay yourself.

This email should be sent to angelofhopefccscholarship@gmail.com with YourLastName_AOHCC in the subject line. Applications will not be considered complete without the submission of these four items by the deadline, Friday, April 26, 2024, at 3:00 p.m. If you have any questions, please email angelofhopefccscholarship@gmail.com.