

East Carter Co. R-II School District
Course Scope and Sequence

Course: HS World History

OF DAYS	TOPICS
10	Unit 1: Introducing World History
20	Unit 2: Classical Civilizations Topics <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Ancient Greece2. Ancient Rome
20	Unit 3: The Middle Ages Topics <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. The Crusades2. The Middle Ages: Art and Architecture3. The Black Death
25	Unit 4: Renaissance and Reformation Topics <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. The Italian States2. Ideas and Art of the Renaissance3. The Protestant Reformation4. The Spread of Protestantism

15	Unit 5: Age of Exploration Topics <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. European Exploration and Expansion 2. The First Global Economic Systems 3. Colonial Latin America
20	Unit 6: Scientific Revolution, Enlightenment & Industrial Revolution Topics <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The Ideas of Enlightenment 2. Enlightened Absolutism and Balance of Power 3. Industrial Revolution
15	Unit 7: The French Revolution and Age of Napoleon Topics <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The French Revolution Begins 2. Radical Revolution and Reaction 3. The Rise of Napoleon and the Napoleonic Wars 4. The Fall of Napoleon and the European Reaction
10	Unit 8: Rise of Imperialism Topics <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Colonial Rule in Southeast Asia 2. Empire Building in Africa 3. British Rule in India 4. Imperialism in Latin America
40	Unit 9: Topics <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. World War I 2. Nationalism 3. Rise of Dictatorial Regimes 4. WWII

Course Description

In this course, students will be taught the World History Missouri Learning Standards. This course will span the events of global history and be an adventure from early civilizations through the post World War II era and the contemporary world. Various themes will be explored throughout the study of history, including government, economics, geography, cultures, and social systems.