Califon Public School English Language Arts Curriculum

Subject: Reading and ILA	Grade: 3	Unit #: 1	Pacing: 10 weeks
Unit Title: Building a Reading and Writing Life

OVERVIEW OF UNIT:

The goal of this unit is to instill in students the lifelong habits of strong readers, including choosing books wisely, keeping track of how reading is going and addressing problems along the way, learning to talk about books with others, and applying comprehension strategies to hold on to and synthesize all the parts of a text. Focus on reading fluency, phonics, and vocabulary development are incorporated throughout all reading, writing, and spelling units. Furthermore, students will study the characteristics of narrative writing, and use narrative writing to share their memories and fictional stories with others. Students will learn strategies for brainstorming ideas, planning their writing, and selecting ideas to take through the entire writing process for publication.

Unit References
Big Ideas	Essential Questions
Readers learn to choose books that are just right for them and to monitor their comprehension as they read.	How do readers choose "just right" books?
Readers set goals and track their progress toward those goals.	What strategies do readers use to learn new words and improve their comprehension?
Readers use a variety of strategies to read and understand texts.	What do good readers and writers do?
Fluent readers group words quickly to help them gain meaning from what they read.	Why do good authors write personal narratives?
A personal narrative is generated from the writer's own life experiences. A personal narrative is focused, detailed and chronological and engages the reader.	How do writers construct an effective personal narrative using the writing process?
Objectives	1

- Students will be able to choose on-level books for independent reading.
- Students will set reading and writing goals and track progress toward those goals.
- Students will use strategies to understand fiction and nonfiction text.
- Students will identify the characteristics of narrative writing.
- Students will construct an effective personal narrative using the writing process.

Unit Title: Reading to Learn: Gras	sping Main Ideas and Text Structure	28

OVERVIEW OF UNIT:

In this unit, students will learn to read long stretches of nonfiction text and to read to learn what the author wants them to learn rather than specific facts. Students will read expository texts with interest and fluency, ascertaining the main ideas and recognizing the infrastructure of a text. Students will navigate expository and narrative nonfiction texts, using these texts as mentor texts for their own writing.

Califon Public School English Language Arts Curriculum

Subject: Reading and ILA	Grade: 3	Unit #: 3	Pacing: 6 weeks
Unit Title: Reading to Learn: Character Studies

OVERVIEW OF UNIT:

This unit focuses on the study of characters. Students will understand that readers study characters deeply by observing, coming up with ideas, and investigating patterns that reveal deeper character traits and motivations. They will learn about the kinds of story arcs that characters tend to follow. Finally, students will compare and contrast characters across books, examining their traits, motivations, the way they respond to problems, and the life lessons they learn and teach.

Unit References
Big Ideas	Essential Questions
Readers use evidence from a text to make observations and predictions about characters.	What can we learn about a character based on their thoughts and actions?
Readers can learn about characters in a text by studying how they react to challenges.	How are characters in different books similar and different from each other?
One way readers compare books is to think about ways in which the main character in each is similar and different.	How can understanding the characters in a story help the reader understand the story and theme?
A fictional narratives is organized by a sequence of events.	How do authors develop strong characters?
Objectives

Subject: Reading and ILA	Grade: 3	Unit #: 4	Pacing: 8 weeks
Unit Title: Research Clubs

OVERVIEW OF UNIT:

This unit focuses on research and learning to learn from reading. In this unit, students will gather a variety of texts on one topic and synthesize information across texts, organizing what they are learning. Students will clubs to study their own animals, engage in cooperative analysis, and grow ideas. They will apply their knowledge to solve real-world problems. Furthermore, students will conduct research using print and media sources to write research reports.

ideas to write.	What are different strategies used to organize information?
Objectives

• Students will research a subject using a variety of print and media sources.

- Students will apply knowledge learned in research to solve real world problems.
- Take notes to gather information for print and media sources.
- Organize notes and ideas to write an effective informational piece.

Assessment

Formative Assessment:

- Guided reading/ workshop discussions
- Reading and writing workshop discussion and conferences
- Spelling sorts
- Daily Language Review
- Reading log
- Writing drafts

Subject: Reading and ILA	Grade: 3	Unit #: 5	Pacing: 6 weeks
Unit Title: Poetry

OVERVIEW OF UNIT:

In this unit, students will study characteristics and forms of poetry. They will study poets and discuss their inspiration, and they will gather inspiration to write their own poetry from the world around them. Students will explore the elements of poetry, write poems using all types of poetry forms, and read all types of poetry forms in order to better understand the different poetic elements, forms and expressions.

Unit References
Big Ideas	Essential Questions
Inspiration for writing can be found anywhere.	Why do authors write poetry.?
Poets write to express feelings and opinions.	What inspired authors to write poetry?
Poets use various poetic devices to enhance their work.	How can poetic devices such as rhythm and meter affect the flow of a poem?
Objectives

- Students will read, understand, and discuss a variety of poems.
- Students will gather inspiration from their communities to write poems modeled after mentor texts.
- Students will identify poetic devices in poems and songs.
- Students will read poetry with fluency and expression.
