Oklahoma Student Given a Zero Grade for Faith-Based Opinion on Gender

A pre-med university student in Oklahoma is speaking out after reportedly receiving a grade of zero on a reaction essay during which she cited the Bible and spoke against gender ideology. "The assignment was to give our opinion and our reaction to an article about gender stereotypes and gender norms," Samantha Fulnecky told CBN News. "And so that's what I did."

'Packed and Overflowing': Fraternity, Sorority Members Transformed in Bible Study Spike at Clemson

The sights and sounds of campus life at Clemson University are familiar from students rushing to and from class to what's becoming a new scene on many college campuses. Frat houses, long known for alcohol-fueled parties, are seeing a surge in interest from fraternity and sorority members wanting to explore their faith. "My eyes being open to my faith have driven me to the point where I've found purpose in Jesus Christ," said Alex Osburn, member of Phi Kappa Tau fraternity.

Chosen Actor Jonathan Roumie Says Atheists Are Turning to Christ After Watching Series: 'He Will Find You'

Actor Jonathan Roumie, who portrays Jesus in the multi-season TV series "The Chosen", says the show is impacting people around the world, including "lifelong atheists" who have now become Christians. Roumie appeared on ABC's "The View" earlier this week to discuss details of filming Season 6 and to promote a 25-day Advent prayer challenge from Hallow, a prayer and meditation app.

Jerusalem Hosts 1,000 Pastors to Support Jewish State, Combat Antisemitism

JERUSALEM, Israel – More than one thousand pastors and Christian influencers are in the Holy Land this week. Organizers call it the largest gathering of its kind since Israel's founding. A partnership between Israel's Ministry of Foreign Affairs and the Friends of Zion Museum led to the unprecedented visit.

Highlights from Letters to Power 88

Dear Power 88,

If it wasn't for the encouragement, you guys give to me on my morning drive to work, I might not make it off of Airport Blvd! I'll be praying for you all. If we all pull together, GOD's will can be done. Mobile AL

Dear Mr. Goforth,

Thank you and your staff for the work of your radio stations. But honestly, the glory belongs to God! I believe He has great things in mind for your stations. I enjoy listening to the programs on your AM station, and more recently, I have begun listening to the music on your FM station. I will pray that God will give you wisdom and discernment to keep up the work. Daphne AL

Franklin Graham's Samaritan's Purse Puts Hurricane Helene Victim in New Home in Time for Christmas

For a North Carolina Vietnam veteran, being home for the holidays holds a new meaning.

When Hurricane Helene hit North Carolina last year, Bob and Edwina Tatum watched everything they loved and owned, including their home of 46 years, swept away in floodwaters down the Toe River in the mountains of the western part of the state. The Minneapolis, NC couple watched as their home was smashed under a bridge, and both of their horses drowned.
